

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT DIGEST FOR ESB 201

Citations Affected: IC 10-14; noncode.

Synopsis: Emergency management. Proposed conference committee report to ESB 201. Prepared for Senator Wyss. Requires the state emergency management agency to establish a program to certify emergency management organizations and professional emergency managers. Requires a county emergency management organization or interjurisdictional disaster agency in which a county participates to be certified as an emergency management organization. Requires a county emergency management director to be a full-time county employee and to be certified as a professional emergency manager. Delays implementation of these provisions for existing county emergency management organization, interjurisdictional disaster agencies, and county emergency management directors, until July 1, 2009. (This conference committee report: (1) delays implementation of certain requirements for existing county emergency management organizations, interjurisdictional disaster agencies, and county emergency management directors, until July 1, 2009; and (2) removes the provision establishing an interim study committee to study certain public safety and homeland security issues.)

Effective: July 1, 2005.
